

Ordinance No. 063, Series of 2023

An Ordinance Establishing the Baguio City Research and Innovation Alliance

This is a placeholder preview document. It summarizes the publicly known facts about Ordinance No. 063, Series of 2023, as referenced across the Incubator Baguio website, pending publication of the full certified copy by the City Government of Baguio.

Summary

The ordinance operationalizes the Baguio City Research and Innovation Alliance under the City Planning, Development and Sustainability Office (CPDSO). It provides the institutional foundation for long-term collaboration among government, academia, industry, and the community to strengthen innovation, entrepreneurship, research, and startup development in Baguio City — the legal basis for Incubator Baguio itself.

Key Provisions (Summary)

- Establishes the Alliance as the city's convening body for innovation and research initiatives.
- Designates CPDSO as the lead coordinating office.
- Creates a framework for partnership among the City Government, universities, industry, and community organizations.
- Supports programs such as startup incubation, research commercialization, and innovation challenges.
